Harmony at Home begins with Empathy and Critical Thinking.

When you practice empathy and critical thinking, you are able to understand how others might be feeling, and respond to them thoughtfully and respectfully. Empathy and critical thinking are the foundations of peaceful relationships and will strengthen each of the social emotional learning (SEL) skills you learn at home.

Follow these steps to access the lessons and activities in each unit:

- Start at the Harmony Online Learning Portal.
- From the Portal, navigate to the Out of School Time unit and suggested lessons below.
- Click “Start Activity” in the upper right corner of the activity panel. All the lesson materials you need are available in the Materials section.
- Follow lesson instructions from the Online Learning Portal along with the Harmony at Home Activities below.

You’ll see three parts to each lesson:

- “Setting the Stage”
- “Facilitating the Activity”
- “Wrapping it Up”

We have included suggestions below for adapting the content for use at home.

|      | Read: “Feelings on the Outside” | Lesson Goals
Foster awareness that emotions have internal and external cues.
Promote recognition of one’s own and others’ emotions.
Questions to ask:
- Do you remember a time you had the same feelings? When?
- How did you manage these feelings?
- Did it help you feel better?
- What will you do the next time you feel this way?
CONNECTION: English Language Arts
Children draw or journal their responses. |
|      | Lesson Goals
Increase understanding of emotional consequences of situations.
Increase understanding of the causes of emotions.
Promote an awareness of situational cues in understanding emotions. | Use the scenario cards to prompt conversation about feelings:
- Read a scenario card and ask your child to talk about how they would feel.
- Take a photo or have your child draw a picture of themselves to show their feelings.
CONNECTION: English Language Arts
Choose a feeling from the feelings poster. Draw a picture or write a story for that feeling. |

| 2    | 2.3    | Create a Feelings Chart:
- Look through magazines of people showing different emotions.
- Talk about the feelings you see.
- Sort and glue the pictures onto a paper to create a feelings chart.
- Label the chart with feeling words.
* You can also draw your own pictures or use family photos for this activity.
CONNECTION: Social Studies
Look through family pictures and talk about the feelings of the people in the photos.
- What did you do when you were happy and excited?
- What did you do when you were worried or scared? |
| 2    | 2.4    | Watch a favorite movie, YouTube or TV show:
- Watch for the different feelings throughout the show.
- Pause the show occasionally to discuss the characters’ feelings.
- Use the feelings chart to see how many feelings you can find.
CONNECTION: Social Studies
Discuss: Feelings Clues
- What clues tell you how someone is feeling?
- Label sheets at the top with big feelings, such as happy, sad, angry, scared. Fold sheets of paper in half, label each side:
- What does it look like?
- What does it sound like?
Draw or glue photos or pictures of the clues you see and hear for the feelings. |

| 2    | 2.5    | Read the story with your child and point out misunderstandings that arise in the story. Talk about how people often make guesses about (or stereotype) what other people like and don’t like:
- Make a list of 10 things you like: to eat, play, listen to, touch, look at, etc.
- Interview your family members to see if they like the same things.
Did you make guesses about what your family members like? Did you have some matches? Were you surprised by any differences?
CONNECTION: Science/Math (Attributes)
Choose two animals that you don’t know very much about.
Make two lists – one for each animal. Write down things you think are true about each animal (ex: friendly, smart etc.).
How could you check what is true about the animals? |
|      | 2.6    | Watch a TV show or read a magazine with your child and focus on the commercials.
- What gender stereotypes do you see?
- Are there stereotypes about boys or girls that are not fair?
CONNECTION: Social Studies/Art
Draw a picture of your favorite toy and tell why you like it. |

Learning from Empathy

Lesson Goals
- Teach students the definition and components of empathy.
- Provide students with the opportunity to practice the components of empathy.
- Help students develop empathy for those who are both similar and different

Play the Empathy Game:
- Empathy is what someone has when they understand another person’s feelings and thoughts.
- Talk about why it is important to understand other people’s feelings and points of view. As a family, use the empathy cards from the lesson materials to share when you had similar feelings.
  - Did someone share a situation that surprised you?
  - Were your feelings and perspectives similar to, or different from, your family?
- Do you think it is easy or difficult to understand someone who has a different perspective or feeling?

CONNECTION: Social Studies
- Watch a movie or video from a different time. Look for feelings that a main character is showing.
  - Do you understand why the character felt that way?

2 | 2.3 |
Caterpillar Thoughts

Lesson Goals
- Promote the perspective that human nature and abilities can change.
- Provide students with the opportunity to practice incremental (growth mindset) thinking patterns.
- Teach students the connection between incremental thinking (growth mindset) and associated feelings and behaviors.

Discuss what you know about caterpillars:
- Describe how caterpillars and worms are different.
- Choose a caterpillar card from the lesson to discuss each day.
- A caterpillar changes to a butterfly.
- What accomplishments has your child made that demonstrates effort and new learning?
- Celebrate those accomplishments with your child and family.
